MISCELLANEOUS.

IN THE SUPREME COURT OF BRITISH COLUMBIA (IN PROBATE).

In the Matter of the "Land Registry Act" and in the Matter of the Estate of William Charles Fry (Deceased), and in the Matter of the "Administration Act."

I, Elizabeth McCaskill, of 1295 Eleventh Avenue West, in the City of Vancouver, wife of Donald A. McCaskill, formerly Elizabeth Fry, make oath and say:—

(1.) I am the sole executrix of the estate of my late husband, William Charles Fry, deceased, and as such have knowledge of the matters herein-after deposed to:

(2.) That the said William Charles Fry, deceased, died on or about the 12th day of September, 1915, in the town of Stanley, in the Province of British Columbia:

(3.) That the only assets of the said deceased at the time of his death consisted of equities in real estate, largely in the Municipality of South Vancouver, in the Province of British Columbia:

(4.) No cash or assets convertible into cash which could be utilized for the payment of the debts of the said deceased William Charles Fry were left by him at the time of his death:

(5.) The funeral expenses and such debts of the deceased as were paid were paid by my present husband, Donald A. McCaskill, a former business associate and friend of my late husband:

(6.) The only debts of the estate which were not paid by the said Donald A. McCaskill were the following: A debt due to Dr. Park, who claimed to have attended my husband on certain occasions, but I considered from the evidence produced to me that the said bill was not a legitimate bill, and refused to pay the same; and the sum of $4,000 due to one Mrs. Alice T. Mitchell on a mortgage on Lots numbered 1 to 10 (inclusive), 21 and 29 in Block 57, District Lot 258, and Lots numbered 1 to 11 (inclusive) in Block numbered K, resubdivision of Blocks 58 and 61, District Lot 258, Group 1, Map 3249, Vancouver District. This mortgage was not paid because the estate had no money to pay it; secondly, this money was obtained, I have reason to believe, for the benefit of one B. A. Lasalle, and the said mortgage, or at least a portion thereof, should have been paid by him. The only other debts of the estate which were not paid by the said Donald A. McCaskill were taxes on the real estate standing in the name of my husband at the date of his decease, or over which he held agreements to purchase. All such properties have reverted to the municipalities in which they were situated by reason of non-payment of the taxes:

(7.) There are now no assets, real or personal, of the estate of the late William Charles Fry with which to pay or realize money to pay any of the indebtedness of the said William Charles Fry, and I have not now, nor did I ever have any funds of the said estate with which to pay the indebtedness of the said estate, and I am desirous of administering the said estate as an insolvent estate pursuant to Part VII. of the "Administration Act."

ELIZABETH McCASKILL.
